The specialist rescue helping Lakeland, 'Working type'
and other Terriers find their caring, forever homes

NEW Aug 20

Be realistic if you are looking for a Rescue dog. Their needs come first so that the family recognise HOW they can help a dog come through into new beginnings. If you are prescriptive on Age; Breed; fur type and Size you could miss out on a perfect dog! To ask for young; skilled; settled old dog's brain in a youthful eager to learn whippersnapper is asking too much. Believe in yourself and your skills and enjoy the quest of offering scope to a dog who had no hope.

Macey Romanian Street dog 2 years old Fragile girlie

- Macey was bought over by 'Rescue' and effectively abandoned due to her intrinsic nerves
- We offered her what her Rescuers should have done spay; vaccination and safety
- Forms deep true bonds with those who have given her patience, time and shown her love
- Doesn't like being leaned over feels trapped
- An escape risk 1) on walks so slip lead used with leads 2) in home exit management is key
- Lived with other dogs

King Lurcher 3 years old Stunning head turner

- Deep emotional bond with his humans
- Needs 'at home' companion with build-up tolerance when left.
- Demonstrates nerves meeting strangers so managed regime to stretch his social circle
- Excitement levels managed to avoid mouthing humans in exuberance
- Opportune food thief true to his lurcher genetics
- Muzzle trained for when his nerves are challenged
- Special diet currently following serious stomach infection now treated
- Quiet family life. Can share with calm other dog

Chelsey Shepherd Lurcher 4 yrs old Chelsea Girl

- Chelsey had a bad start and any nerves she had were confounded with the wrong owners
- Builds good relationships and joyous vibe.
- Needs large garden and quiet life with managed intros
- Heed her fears and gain her acceptance
- Closed shelter upbringing needs transition into life properly broaden her scope Muzzle trained

Freckles Spanish Lurcher 3 years Game on!

- Lively joyous soul who is adaptable to many life scenarios.
- Old break to back leg which needs no further treatment. Doesn't impede or cause pain
- Shares with another dog well
- Needs door and garden security as happily will go walkabouts
- Easy boy with suitcase packed, though fosterers will miss him terribly

Henry Mastiff x Staffie 7 years old Gentleman

- Tragic life (6 years in kennels) as his young exuberant behaviours trapped him in web of Rescue. Hard path to assimilate energy into matured skills
- Excited and nervous initially in home setting
- Learning to relate to dogs in 'the field' and dogmatic head collar helps brilliantly
- Low dog density and quiet life please
- Loving calm vibe: Older children or adult only

Shadow Dutch Shepherd 6 yrs old Emotional kindness

- We believe Shadow was kept in a yard as a young dog judging by the state of him covered in tar on entry to Rescue
- Still learning to adapt to living amongst us and his programme in Rescue has been about him learning to gain control over his own emotionality
- Muzzle trained and adores his walks and paddock play sessions
- Single dog home with slow habituation horizons unless single person experience Shepherd person

Royce Labrador x 3 years old Guilty of playing the fool

- Came into Rescue with zero confidence, puppy bladder with nerves: Has gained sense of self
- Still carrying a naivety in his relationships with dogs. Muzzled as can over react when initiates play or grab due to sudden nerves
- Needs to keep moving around dog as can over indulge and pull heavily towards
- Has lost fears around meeting strangers and now tends to fall on back and display tummy as he signature greeting

Skyla Collie x 8 years old Sincere in all she does

- Skyla was runt of litter and has a degree of neurological deficit affect her gait (Walking) and her bladder bowel control
- Found crystals in bladder which doesn't help her bladder sensitivity on diet to support
- Can have superficial nerves meeting dog but on the whole receives well with instinct to play bow
- Lost home as owner had mental issue and she had a fight with live in Rottie bitch. Now spayed

Buddy GSD cross 1 year old Bestest ever Buddy

- Fun boy who has ended up in kennels at a young age having been owned by homeless person
- Excitable and can engage with his mouth catching clothing and occasionally bruising
- Learning to express his energy in play... needs garden to release pent up frustrated energy which he is doing here.
- Brooding his relationships and losing the concern he came to us with and build trust circle
- Never intent to hurt just exuberance

Fredo Spanish Hound 5 years old True hound dog

- Spanish breed and passport held
- Prime male generally easy around dog but could be assertive if challenged especially over resource; toy or food. Did share
- Enjoys walks with other dogs
- Raw dog to dog in relationships learning to live with humans so a few reactions which need patience and 'placing' to understand and shape

Kirby Akita 3 years old Luv my humans

- Beautiful & typical Akita. Very soft vibe
- Muzzled in public as got out of original home and grabbed passing dog
- Strict exit management and secure garden with supervision as could climb
- Keen interest in running small animals; no real reaction to passing dogs.
- Can be left without destruction in kennel
